A Montana resident who entered the uniformed services from Montana and who is on active military duty stationed outside Montana may register a motor vehicle/vessel that he or she owns and operates without paying particular fees (such as certain light vehicle registration fees, fees in lieu of property tax, county option taxes, as otherwise required) upon completion and submission of this application for registration sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths. Application must be made each year for any motor vehicle/vessel for which Montana law requires annual renewal of registration.
